

Your New Dining Venues - Saffron Al Areen & Keizo

Al Areen Palace & Spa has opened two new restaurants. For all the Arabic food lovers, Saffron - Al Areen Bahraini – Khaleeji Cuisine is your definite choice. With beautiful high ceiling and exquisite Arabic interiors, this restaurant overlooks the hotel's majestic outdoor pool. Saffron introduces a new range of menus inspired by Bahraini dishes blended with Khaleeji fusion. It's definitely mouth watering! Keizo Al Areen takes you through a gastronomic feast with its new Far Eastern dining concept. With its sleek oriental inspired atmosphere, its definitely one that is going to impress. It features a luxurious range of Japanese, Thai and Chinese dishes. Let's just say it is a combination of classic to contemporary with a flair of creativity. The Artistic Journey

In 2013, Lucia launched a new artistic activity, painting sea stones of volcanic origin that comes from a tiny island in the south of Italy, known as Alicudi. By painting these sea stones, she blends her creativity together with the magic of this place. Today, along with her other artistic activities, Art Stone Jewels is Lucia's new way of expressing her creativity. Her creations are bought as special gifts for weddings, birthdays or simply by private collectors who adore her art.

Go find her at Jewellery Arabia and be amazed!
